LOCATION

The property is a short distance from the centre of the popular and historic town of Wem which dates back to the Iron Age. There are references to Wem in the Domesday Book and in 1202 it was granted Market Town status by King John. Wem today has an excellent range of local shopping, recreational and educational facilities. In Wem there are a range of great local pubs, cafe's and restaurants.

The larger centres, also, of Whitchurch (8 miles), Ellesmere (9 miles) and Shrewsbury (10 miles) are within easy motoring distance, all of which have a more comprehensive range of amenities of all kinds. There is also a railway station in the town which is on the Manchester to Cardiff line and is about 1/4 of a mile from the house.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Halls are delighted to be instructed to sell 41 Noble Street by private treaty.

This stunning detached Georgian family home is located in the heart of the historic town of Wem. The property has been sympathetically cared for and maintained. The property retains many of its original features including a wonderful pull ring door bell, a wealth of exposed timbers, wood panelling and sash windows.

The Grade II Listed property comprises entrance, snug, living room with inglenook style fireplace with log burner, dining kitchen and garden room. Off the inner hall is a ground floor shower room with W.C and a utility room. Off the kitchen is access to a useful cellar. To the first floor are three bedrooms and family bathroom and to the second floor are a further two bedrooms. The property has oil fired heating.

There is a small paved area to the front and a gate leading to driveway. From the drive the large garden opens up with lawned area, sitting area and a two storey workshop which was originally used as a stable and hay loft.
