21 HEYWOOD TERRACE

PILL BS20 0EA

GUIDE PRICE
£350,000

A rare renovation opportunity—this unusually large 1,400+ sq ft Victorian end-of-terrace offers three double bedrooms, original features, off-street parking, a garage, and a generous garden, all in a prime location. Full modernisation required.

This substantial Victorian end-of-terrace home, originally built for the area's developer, offers over 1,400 sq ft of beautifully proportioned accommodation—making it significantly larger than average for the area. The property is in need of full renovation throughout, offering an exciting opportunity for buyers to restore and customise a characterful home to their own tastes and standards.

To the ground floor, a bright and airy entrance hall welcomes you with its original sweeping staircase, leading to two generously sized reception rooms—both featuring bay windows and high ceilings that retain the grandeur of the Victorian era. Also on this level is a spacious kitchen/breakfast room, a utility area, and a downstairs WC.

Upstairs, the first floor comprises two exceptionally large bedrooms, which have been altered over the years but offer the potential to be reconfigured to create additional rooms, if required. A further double bedroom and a family bathroom complete the layout.

Rarely available in this sought-after location, the property also benefits from off-street parking and a private garage—an extremely rare asset for homes of this age. A generous rear garden provides further scope for extension or landscaping (STPP), making this a truly exciting project with immense potential.
