The accommodation comprises

Positioned at the very heart of Burnham-On-Crouch's historic High Street, 35-37 'Kings' stands as a characterful period property that reflects the towns long standing connection to trade, community and the River Crouch.

Circa the late 18th to mid 19th century the property stands out as a recognisable focal point property within the towns conservation area. This is a prime location adjacent to the esplanade and river, an ideal spot for anyone wishing to be part of the community. The vibrant High Street offers restaurants, public house, Royal yacht clubs and a renowned sailing scene along with mixed river sports.

'Kings' is a gorgeous four bedroom detached family residence with some stunning river views. Offering on the ground floor, a large reception hallway, beautifully bright and airy lounge, spacious dining room, kitchen/breakfast room, separate utility room, garden room and a shower room/w/c. The first floor has four excellent size double bedrooms with the principal bedroom having an en-suite and incredible views of the river and beyond. These wonderful views are also shared with bedroom two and to finish on this floor the family bathroom. Externally a super sunny West facing rear garden, ideal for family gatherings and entertaining. The property has electric gates to parking for multiple vehicles and walled boundaries offering a high degree of privacy.
