Situated in a lovely non estate established location is this impressive traditional detached bungalow set on a 0.19 acre plot, perfect for those seeking a large garden and plenty of parking provided by the spacious block paved drive plus a carport.

The porch opens through to the entrance hall with doors leading off. To the left is a light and airy lounge featuring a dual aspect outlook and a focal fireplace. Further along the hall is the dining room having a window to side, chimney breast plus a handy fitted storage cupboard. Adjoining this room is the kitchen which has a range of newly fitted units, an integral oven and hob along with a window and door opening out the rear garden.

Bedroom one is a lovely double with a bay window framing views to front and bedroom two is also a double enjoying rear garden views. The superb bathroom is well appointed with a modern suite including both a bath and separate shower, WC and vanity basin.

The rear gardens offers a wonderful outdoor space with shaped lawns, a wildlife pond, mature trees and shrubs, green house and garden shed (we believe the shed is asbestos).
