Location

Rickingham, together with the adjoining village of Botesdale, is a highly regarded and well-served location, offering a strong sense of community alongside a wide range of everyday amenities. These include a primary school, doctors' surgery, dentist, local supermarket, post office, public houses and takeaways. The area is particularly popular for its balance of village charm and convenience.

The Property

Tucked away off the main street within the heart of the village, this deceptively spacious and recently modernised two/three bedroom detached chalet-style home offers well-balanced and versatile accommodation throughout. Upon entering, a welcoming entrance hall provides access to a cloakroom and a versatile study/bedroom three. The kitchen/breakfast room has been recently re-fitted to a high specification, offering a contemporary and functional space, complemented by a separate utility room.

The dining room opens through to the sitting room, creating a sociable layout ideal for modern living, with the added benefit of a bright sun room enjoying views over the garden.

To the first floor are two generous double bedrooms, with the principal bedroom benefitting from a modern en-suite shower room. The family bathroom has also been recently upgraded, with both bath and en-suite finished to a high standard with contemporary fittings.

Overall, the property offers a flexible layout suited to a variety of buyers, with the added benefit of being ready for immediate occupation following its recent improvements.

Outside

The property is approached via a shared gravel driveway, providing off-road parking and access to a detached garage, currently configured as a workshop with power and lighting connected, and further enhanced by a secondary roller door for additional security. The gardens have been thoughtfully arranged to create an attractive and usable outdoor space, with a generous paved terrace providing an ideal setting for al fresco dining and entertaining. This flows seamlessly onto well-maintained lawns, enjoying a good degree of privacy and offering a pleasant backdrop to the property.
