THE PROPERTY

38 Bedford Terrace is a charming period cottage, enjoying a sought after peaceful and tucked away elevated position just to the north of the town centre. It is understood to date back to circa 1839 and listed grade 2, of architectural or historic importance.

The accommodation is very well presented and has a number of character style features, typical of its age and type, including sash windows, historic exposed floorboards, picture rails, fireplace with wood burner and wood block flooring to the hall. From the first floor there are superb long range views over Bridport town stretching as far as West Bay to the sea and the surrounding countryside and hills.

The house features gas-fired central heating, painted solid wood kitchen with hardwood worktops and stoneware sink plus gas-fired Aga and separate electric hob, a shower room with walk-in shower.

The well maintained and spacious accommodation extends to:
Ground floor - Reception hall, living room, large kitchen/dining room
First floor - Landing with large loft and pull-down ladder, three bedrooms, shower room with walk-in shower.

A further particular feature of the property is the very nearby off-road parking for two cars/second well established garden and a lovely private walled courtyard rear garden.

This house has not been on the market since 2007. Viewing is strongly recommended by the sole agents, Stags.

OUTSIDE

There is a separate well established garden, just down from the property, with garage, off-road parking, raised beds and a whole range of shrubs.

At the rear of the cottage is a lovely secluded paved courtyard with raised beds which are well stocked with plants.

SITUATION

The property enjoys a sought after peaceful and tucked away elevated position, yet is within easy reach of the town centre. It is just a short walk down Barrack Street or through Millenium Gardens and Downes Street onto East Street and the main centre. Millenium Walk is also very nearby, a delightful footpath over Coneygar Hill. Bridport is a thriving and historic market town, well known for its wide streets. There is an excellent range of shopping, business and leisure facilities, including restaurants, hotels, cinema, arts centre, museum, farmers' and vintage markets. The town is well served by primary and secondary schools. West Bay, with its bathing beaches and access to the World Heritage Jurassic Coast, is only a few miles to the south. The larger centres of Dorchester, Yeovil and Weymouth are all within easy reach, with mainline rail services to London.
