THE PROPERTY

The communal entrance is accessed from Melvill Road or through the lovely shared gardens, with both a staircase and lift rising to the top floor. The apartment's own entrance hall, complete with cloaks cupboard, leads through to an inner hallway providing further storage, an airing cupboard housing the hot water tank, a video entry phone and loft access.

The heart of the apartment is the open-plan living and dining room, a substantial and light-filled space measuring 6.4m x 5.9m, with wooden window shutters and direct access onto the balcony overlooking the gardens below. The adjoining kitchen is fitted with an extensive range of units beneath granite work surfaces, together with a breakfast bar, gas cooker with extractor hood, and integrated dishwasher. Both the integrated fridge and freezer were replaced in 2025.

The principal bedroom benefits from two built-in wardrobes, with a door through to the en-suite shower room comprising a walk-in shower upgraded in 2022, wash hand basin, WC and heated towel rail. The second double bedroom is a characterful room, part circular in shape with curved double glazed windows, fitted shutters and a large built-in wardrobe. A stylish bathroom also features an upgraded rainfall shower in 2022.

Externally, the apartment comes with a large designated parking bay within a private brick-paved area accessed from Sea View Road, together with an external storage unit within the grounds, ideal for water sports or leisure equipment.

THE LOCATION

Sea View Court sits on Melvill Road, one of Falmouth's most convenient addresses, positioned between the town centre and the seafront. Gyllyngvase Beach and the coastal walks beyond are within easy reach, while the shops, restaurants and harbourside of the town centre are around a ten minute walk away. The development is set within well tended communal gardens, and Falmouth's branch line railway stations nearby provide connections to Penryn, Truro and onwards to the mainline network.
