Callaghans are pleased to offer for sale this over 60's apartment that offers a harmonious blend of comfort and practicality, overlooking Gatley Green and St James Church. This first floor haven is not just a living space but a gateway to a peaceful lifestyle.

The living room overlooking St Jamse's church promises a welcoming area for relaxation. The white fitted kitchen units, stands ready to cater to your culinary exploits. The double bedroom, equipped with built-in wardrobes, ensures a restful retreat. The modern well-appointed bathroom tiled walls and walk in shower understands the value of both space and accessibility. The inclusion of a large storage cupboard in the hallway is a welcome addition. The apartment is heated by new energy efficient radiators, keeping you toasty.

The communal aspects of the development are just as impressive, with a dedicated house manager and a residents' lounge that fosters a sense of community. The convenience of communal laundry facilities, lift access, and the beautifully maintained grounds add layers of ease to your daily living. Moreover, the provision of off-road parking speaks volumes of the thoughtful planning that has gone into creating a place that not only meets but anticipates your needs.

Whether it's the proximity to Gatley Village with its array of amenities or the assurance of a secure and well-managed environment, this apartment seems to tick all the boxes for a comfortable and convenient retirement lifestyle. Contact Callaghans to find out more.
