Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Set behind electric gates and approached via a private sweeping driveway, this beautifully presented detached home, built in 2021, immediately impresses. The current owners have further elevated the property with thoughtful upgrades including bespoke shutters, solar panels, and carefully designed landscaping that enhances the home's already striking kerb appeal. The generous paved driveway provides parking for several vehicles and leads to a large detached double garage, complete with electric door and EV charging point.

Stepping inside, you are welcomed by a bright and airy entrance hall, where a contemporary glass balustrade staircase rises to a mezzanine landing above. Skylights draw natural light deep into the home, creating an immediate sense of space and openness.

From here the home flows beautifully into the main living and dining space, a wonderfully generous room that stretches across the depth of the house. With neutral interiors, bespoke shutters and underfloor heating running beneath your feet, it is a space that feels both stylish and comfortable, perfect for relaxing evenings or entertaining guests.

The heart of the home is undoubtedly the stunning kitchen diner. Finished in timeless shaker-style cabinetry with granite worktops and integrated appliances, the space is both elegant and practical. A central island naturally becomes the hub of the home – ideal for morning coffee, casual dining, or gathering with friends while cooking. French doors open directly onto the paved patio, allowing the inside and outside spaces to blend effortlessly during warmer months.

The ground floor also offers two well-proportioned double bedrooms, both light-filled and peaceful rooms that share a stylish shower room. This layout is particularly versatile, whether used for guests, family members, or for those who appreciate the option of single-storey living. A convenient downstairs WC and a separate utility room – fitted with matching cabinetry and granite worktops – add further practicality, with the utility also providing access to the garden.

Upstairs, the sense of space continues. One double bedroom enjoys open views across the fields to the rear and benefits from fitted wardrobes, while the family bathroom offers a luxurious retreat with a freestanding bath and separate shower.

The principal suite is a particularly special space. A dormer window frames picturesque countryside views, while a generous dressing area provides excellent storage. From here, a pocket door leads through to the beautifully appointed ensuite, completing a calm and private retreat within the home.

Throughout the property, thoughtful upgrades are evident – from oak internal doors to solar-powered remote-control blinds fitted to the skylights, as well as bespoke shutters across much of the home.

Outside, the property enjoys a generous and elevated plot overlooking the playing fields and Ladderedge beyond. The landscaped frontage is framed with mature planting and laurel hedging, while to the rear a large paved patio wraps around both sides of the house – perfect for outdoor dining and entertaining. Beyond this, a sweeping lawn stretches out to create a wonderful garden space.

Altogether, this is a home that effortlessly combines modern efficiency, stylish design and a beautiful setting, offering flexible living space both inside and out.

Location

Situated on the outskirts of the market town of Leek in Birchall, close to Birchall Golf Club.

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages
