PROPERTY CONSULTANTS & VALUERS

This characterful two-bedroom property is situated in the popular village of Martinstown, within an area of outstanding natural beauty, and situated within a designated conservation area. The property further benefits from a spacious living room, a fitted kitchen with adjoining utility area, downstairs WC and a useful conservatory. Upstairs are three bedrooms and a family bathroom. Externally, there is a paved courtyard to the rear. EPC rating TBC.

Nestled in the heart of the Dorset National Landscape Martinstown, officially known as Winterborne St. Martin, is the quintessential English village. Characterized by its long, picturesque main street that follows the meandering River South Winterborne, it offers a perfect blend of historic charm and a thriving, friendly and active community. Village life centers around The Brewers Arms traditional public house, St. Martin's Church – a beautiful 12th-century flint-and-stone church that overlooks the village green, the village hall, local shop and Post Office, along with a popular nearby farm shop. History and nature is right on your doorstep with Maiden Castle offering breathtaking panoramic views and miles of walking paths. Hardy's Monument lies to the west with the landscape rising toward Blackdown, providing views that stretch across the Jurassic Coast. The surrounding "Hardy Country" is a paradise for hikers, cyclists, and equestrians, with an extensive network of bridleways and footpaths cutting through rolling chalk downs. The county town of Dorchester provides comprehensive shopping, leisure facilities and the vibrant Brewery Square development. Nearby Weymouth offers the dramatic Jurassic Coast (a UNESCO World Heritage site) and there are Regular mainline services to London Waterloo and Bristol run from Dorchester.

The property is entered through a porch area, providing useful space for shoes and coats. A further door leads into a small hallway with coat hanging space and stairs rising to the first floor.

To the left is the living room, which has a log burner and exposed ceiling beams, giving the room a pleasant characterful feel. There is also useful storage, including an understairs cupboard.

The kitchen is fitted with a four-ring gas hob, oven and extractor fan, sink and drainer, and wood-block worktops. There is also plumbing and an electric supply to insert a dishwasher. From the kitchen there is access to the utility area, which has space for a fridge freezer and washing machine. The utility also provides access to the downstairs WC, fitted with a toilet and wash basin.

The downstairs flooring is tiled throughout, apart from the living room. Off the kitchen is a small conservatory with sliding doors leading out to the paved courtyard.

Upstairs, there are three bedrooms and a family bathroom. The main bedroom has space for a double bed, a fireplace which is currently not in use but remains connected to the chimney, and a built-in wardrobe. The second bedroom is a single room with two built-in wardrobe spaces, providing useful storage.

The family bathroom is part tiled and comprises a bath, toilet and wash basin. The accommodation is completed by a single room which can also be utilised as a study, providing a useful space for home working or as an additional versatile room.
