RICHARD HARDING

Situated along this much sought after road in Westbury Park; a beautifully presented and creatively extended 3 double bedroom, 2 reception room, Victorian period family house of character, having stunning semi open-plan kitchen family entertaining space with bi-folding doors to a lovely enclosed rear garden.

Key Features

- A fine period residence (dating from 1874) having plenty of original features such as high ceilings, period fireplaces, moulded plasterwork and sash windows. These blend seamlessly with some well-considered high quality modern improvements such as a ground floor cedar clad extension with powder coated aluminium bi-folding doors and skylight windows, and luxuriously appointed family bath/shower room.
- High quality kitchen having shaker style base and eye levels units with integrated appliances including range cooker and quartz worktops.
- The neighbourhood has a great deal to offer. The nearby schools whether state or private are of an excellent standard and are highly regarded, these include Westbury Park Primary (250m), Redland Green Secondary School (800m) and Badminton (700m). The local convenience store is a nearby Waitrose, just a short walk away there is a fishmonger, two butcher's shops, cafes, good restaurants including Little French and Prego, a gastro pub and many varied independent local shops as well as the local library and independent cinema. Also at the end of the road is the Downs which offer 400 acres of recreational space as well as Redland Green.
- The property has been imaginatively created with great flair and attention to detail by our vendor clients during their seven year stewardship - some are obvious to the eye and others more subtle.
- Ground Floor: entrance vestibule, reception hall, bay fronted sitting room, dining room, semi open-plan kitchen family entertaining space, cloakroom/wc.
- First Floor: landing, 3 bedrooms, family bath/shower room.
- An earliest viewing is unhesitatingly recommended to avoid disappointment.
