ISLAND OWNED & RUN SINCE 1990

Four Bedroom
Detached Villa
located in Pirnmill

Set in the heart of the much-loved coastal village of Pirnmill on the Isle of Arran, this substantial detached stone villa is a truly special home. Dating from 1933, it is bursting with character, charm and original features, with a wonderful sense of history and plenty of space for family and friends. With a history of use as a bed and breakfast, property offers flexibility for a range of lifestyle needs.

With four generous double bedrooms, three bathrooms and beautiful sea views, this is a home that really makes the most of its spectacular island setting. From the garden and many of the rooms, you can enjoy ever-changing views across the Kilbrannan Sound with incredible sunsets providing a breathtaking backdrop at the end of the day.

Outside, the generous lawned garden extends to approximately ¼ acre, with plenty of space to relax, entertain and simply enjoy the peace and beauty of Pirnmill. There is also off-road parking and a useful workshop and a timber shed.

For anyone looking for a home with genuine character, wonderful views and that special feeling of being somewhere quite removed from the everyday, this could be a very lovely place to call home.

Garden

Clisham enjoys substantial grounds, with amazing uninterrupted sea views.

The garden is mature, mostly laid to lawn to the front, with substantial gravelled parking for several cars and there is also a timber workshop and shed.

To the rear and side of the property is more parking and a rear lawned area including drying green.

A decorative front stone patio creates a welcoming focal point and a comfortable spot to take in your outdoor surroundings and wonderful views.

Services

Clisham is connected to mains electricity and water, with drainage to a SEPA registered septic tank which is located to the side of the property. Central heating is by the external oil fired boiler supplying radiators to most of the rooms. This is supplemented by the log burning stove in the living/family room (which also has a back boiler feeding two further radiators) and an open fire in the dining room.

Council tax

The property is rated band E paying £2584.05 in 2026 / 2027.

A little more information

Clisham is located in the peaceful coastal village of Pirnmill on the west coast of the Isle of Arran, a wonderfully unspoilt part of the island known for its spectacular views, beautiful sunsets and relaxed pace of life. The village retains a well stocked village shop and post office along with a seasonal restaurant.

Life here is all about enjoying the outdoors and making the most of Arran's natural beauty. The west coast offers a wonderful mix of rugged coastline, quiet beaches, woodland walks and open countryside, while the island itself has everything you could want from island life – dramatic mountain scenery, ever-changing coastal views, great places to eat, local produce and a lively calendar of events and festivals.

Pirnmill has a real community feel and is a lovely base for exploring the island, with the beach and coastline right on your doorstep. Whether it's a morning walk, watching the sun disappear over the water, heading into the hills or simply enjoying the peace and fresh sea air, it's easy to see why this part of Arran is so special.
