

Parkside Crescent, KT5

£650,000

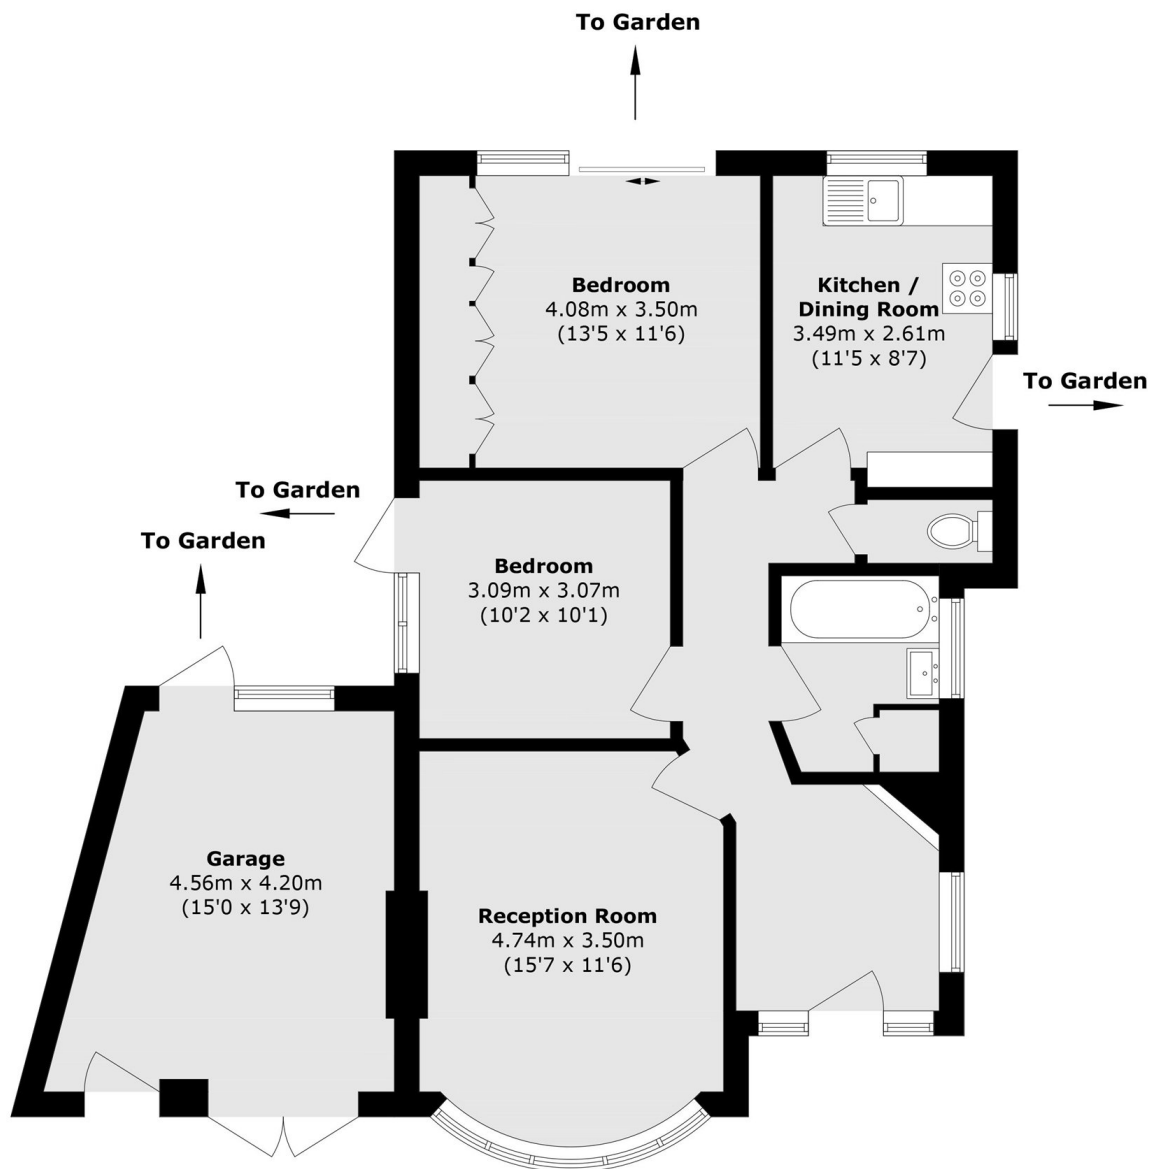

This detached bungalow offers a fantastic opportunity for buyers seeking a home with potential. The property features two well-proportioned bedrooms, along with a garage and driveway providing convenient off-road parking. With scope to extend (subject to planning permission), it presents an excellent chance to create a larger, tailored living space. Offered with no onward chain, this home is ideal for those looking for a smooth and straightforward purchase.

Parkside Crescent has easy access to the A3 and the Hogsmill River with open green space. If you need to get in to London, Berrylands train station is just over half a mile away.
