Genuinely tucked away along its' own private lane and yet moments from the sought after village of Ashton, is this versatile, appealing and individual three bedroom detached bungalow, incorporating a self contained annex and being situated in delightful gardens and grounds approaching half an acre.

Although situated just moments from the sought after village of Ashton and nearby coast at Rinsey, the property has an authentic rural feel to it, with neatly landscaped gardens and grounds providing a wonderful setting in which to relax and unwind. The rural feeling is enhanced with an animal husbandry area and wildlife pond likely to appeal to those who appreciate nature and outdoor living.

The adjacent self contained one bedroom annex adds exceptional versatility, whether for accommodating a dependent relative, welcoming visiting family, or generating an additional income. Well presented throughout, it features a generous studio style living space incorporating a double bedroom, with a well appointed shower room.

The bungalow offers comfortable living space with the lounge / dining room having a wood burning stove and a large window that frames the lovely outlook across the gardens and grounds. The fitted kitchen includes an 'Esse' electric Aga style cooker, the family bathroom is generously sized with a modern suite, whilst a snug / dressing room provides a flexible additional area leading through to the second bedroom. The master bedroom is a comfortable double with built in wardrobes. A sun room and adjacent sun terrace provide lovely vantage points to enjoy over the garden and grounds.

The accommodation in brief comprises an inner hallway, kitchen, lounge, bathroom, sun room, snug/dressing room, two bedrooms and an adjacent annex with a kitchen area, hallway and a bedroom studio with en suite shower room. The property benefits from oil fired central heating & double glazing.

The villages of Ashton and Breage, between them, provide well regarded public houses, a petrol station, primary school and post office. The popular coastal village of Praa Sands is also a short drive away with its sandy beach, public house and shops to cater for every day needs. The towns of Helston and Penzance provide more comprehensive amenities including national stores, restaurants, leisure centres with indoor swimming pools and both primary and secondary schooling. Penzance also benefits from mainline rail links to London Paddington from Penzance train station. The nearby Cornish fishing village of Porthleven is nearby and is a vibrant, picturesque fishing village and mainland Britain's most southerly port. The village is renowned for its many highly regarded restaurants, long beach, surfing, rugged coastline and cliff-top walks. Community groups are thriving within the village with sports' clubs and a prize-winning brass band which can be heard echoing around the harbour on many a summer's Sunday evening.
