MEADPROPERTY

GOLDEN BALL LANE, PINKNEYS GREEN

Asking Price: £500,000

13 Golden Ball Lane, Pinkneys Green, Maidenhead, SL6 6NW

Accommodation & Amenities

A charming and well-presented early 1930's cottage in the heart of Pinkneys Green with hundreds of acres of National Trust countryside and woodland on the doorstep offering scenic walks, cycle routes and bridleways. The property is located in a quiet semi-rural lane with Maidenhead, Cookham and Marlow all within 2 miles and there are numerous local pubs/restaurants within a short walk or drive. This delightful period property benefits from circa 75' of pretty established cottage garden to the rear and driveway parking to the front and there is potential for a loft conversation, subject to the necessary permission. Local Schools are highly regarded and there are excellent transport links with Maidenhead Elizabeth Line station providing a fast commuter service to Paddington and the city. There is easy access to both the M4 and M40 motorways with Heathrow Airport circa 30 minutes away.