Denise White Agent Comments

Tucked away on the popular Priory Avenue in Leek, this three-bedroom semi-detached home presents an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers, young families or those looking for a property they can modernise and make their own. Offering well-proportioned accommodation throughout, a private rear garden and plenty of scope to add value, this is a home full of potential.

The accommodation begins with an entrance hallway, providing access to the first floor and leading into a welcoming lounge. Enjoying a bay window to the front aspect, the lounge is a comfortable and well-sized reception room with a warm, cosy feel. To the rear, the open-plan kitchen/diner offers ample storage, including useful understairs storage, alongside a generous dining space with double doors opening directly onto the rear garden, creating an ideal setting for everyday family living.

Upstairs, the property offers three well-proportioned bedrooms, with the principal and second bedrooms both comfortable doubles. The principal bedroom further benefits from fitted wardrobes, while the third bedroom provides a versatile space, equally suited as a generous single bedroom, home office or nursery. A family bathroom completes the first-floor accommodation.

Whilst the property would benefit from a programme of modernisation, it provides a fantastic blank canvas for buyers to update to their own style and specification.

Location

Known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.
