View Point, Purton, Guide Price £765,000

A rare opportunity to acquire this impressive home, located in the rural and idyllic hamlet of Purton, enjoying panoramic views across the canal, the River Severn, and towards the Forest of Dean. Occupying an elevated position from the road, the property offers both privacy and stunning surroundings.

Beautifully restored in 2008, the house has been meticulously maintained by the current owners and presents a wonderful blend of character and modern living. The well-appointed kitchen flows seamlessly into the dining and lounge area, creating an ideal space for both everyday living and entertaining. The lounge features a wood-burning stove and French doors that open directly onto the garden, allowing you to fully appreciate the picturesque setting.

Further accommodation on the ground floor includes a separate utility room with rear access, a downstairs WC, and a spacious entrance hall. The interior benefits from oak flooring and doors throughout, adding warmth and quality to the home.

Upstairs, there are four well-proportioned double bedrooms, two of which benefit from en-suite facilities, alongside a family bathroom. An airing cupboard is conveniently located on the landing.

Externally, the property offers a gravel driveway providing ample parking for multiple vehicles, along with a large double garage with power and lighting. Above the garage is a versatile home office, perfect for those working remotely or seeking additional space.

The garden is predominantly laid to lawn and enjoys the same far-reaching views, making it an ideal space to relax and unwind.

The property is served by oil-fired central heating, a septic tank, and mains water.

Anti-Money Laundering (AML) Compliance

Estate agents operating in the UK are legally required to carry out Anti-Money Laundering (AML) checks in line with regulations set by HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC). At Hunters Dursley, we use Moverly to facilitate these checks as part of our commitment to compliance and transparency. It is mandatory for both buyers and sellers to complete AML verification before a property transaction can proceed. A fee will be charged for each individual AML check carried out.

Nestled in the charming rural hamlet of Purton, this property offers a peaceful and idyllic lifestyle while still being conveniently located for nearby towns. Purton is surrounded by scenic countryside and benefits from stunning views across the canal, the River Severn, and towards the Forest of Dean, making it a haven for nature lovers and those seeking tranquility.

The nearby town of Berkeley provides essential amenities including local shops, schools, and leisure facilities, while the larger towns of Dursley, Gloucester, and Stroud are within easy driving distance for a wider range of shopping, dining, and entertainment options.

For commuters, excellent road links provide access to the M5 motorway, connecting the area to Bristol, Cheltenham, and beyond. The surrounding countryside is ideal for walking, cycling, and outdoor pursuits, offering a perfect balance of rural charm and convenience.
