The Property

Offered to the market with no onward chain is this 1930's extended three-bedroom home located within just a few minutes walk of Didcot Parkway Train Station. Having been well renovated over the last 8 years, this three-bedroom, mid-terraced home, located ideally for access to Didcot Parkway train station benefits from having no onward chain and a statement kitchen-breakfast room with island, vaulted ceiling and Miele appliances. The property comprises an entrance hall with tiled floor cloakroom, large family sitting room with bay window and a particularly impressive kitchen with breakfast bar/island & vaulted ceiling overlooking the garden. On the first floor there are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a modern refitted bathroom. To the front of the property, there is a block-paved driveway providing parking for two cars side by side, with fitted rising security bollards. Finally, to the rear of the property, there is a predominantly lawned, westerly-facing garden with a patio and a timber-built storage shed.

The property is of a brick and tile construction. This property is connected to mains electricity, gas, water and drainage. Broadband - according to Ofcom, Ultrafast and Superfast Broadband are available at this property (checker.ofcom.org.uk) Mobile Coverage - according to Ofcom, there is good coverage on a range of phone providers. (checker.ofcom.org.uk) According GOV.UK Flood Risk, this property has a very low flood risk. For information relating to Easements, Boundaries, Restrictions & Rights, please contact the agent. Properties built or renovated pre-1999 may contain asbestos in certain building materials e.g. Artex, vinyl tiles, sheet boards and corrugated roofing, pipework and lagging/insulation. These are generally considered safe unless disturbed but prospective buyers must take their own advice. Please be advised, we have not carried out a survey to determine its presence.
