61 Cromwell Road, Hertford, Hertfordshire, SG13 7DP

A beautifully refurbished three bedroom semi detached home, comprehensively renovated from top to bottom to an exceptional standard. The extensive improvements include a brand-new roof, complete rewire, new heating system and boiler, replacement windows and full replastering, creating a stylish, contemporary home ready to enjoy. The ground floor features an inviting entrance hallway leading to a spacious living room, complemented by a separate utility room and convenient cloakroom. Every aspect of the renovation has been carefully considered, combining quality finishes with practical design. To the first floor are two well-proportioned bedrooms, a separate study and a luxurious family bathroom featuring underfloor heating. The impressive loft conversion provides a superb principal bedroom, distinguished by a striking full-width wall of glass framing breath-taking views across the neighbouring allotments. Further benefits include air conditioning and a stylish en-suite shower room. Externally, the property enjoys a beautifully landscaped rear garden, backing directly onto the allotments and providing an attractive outlook. This outstanding home combines contemporary styling, comprehensive modernisation and thoughtfully designed accommodation, with early viewing highly recommended.

Located on the popular east side of Hertford, this excellent family home offers convenient access to Hertford's favoured SG13 primary and secondary schooling, along with both Hertford town centre and Hertford East train station which are both approximately 1 mile away. Far reaching and stunning views to the rear over allotments and the meads.
