72 Nunnery Street, Castle Hedingham, Halstead, Essex, CO9 3DP

A delightful two bedroom cottage, being the end house of a row of cottages, tucked away just off Nunnery Street, and for sale with no ongoing chain. The property offers characterful accommodation which is well proportioned including a sitting room and separate dining room, kitchen with vaulted ceiling and two independent bedrooms.

The charming rear garden is predominantly hard landscaped, for low maintenance, in a courtyard style, with various planted areas and a large very useful timber shed.

Framed and braced timber door leads to an entrance lobby with a brushed mat flooring doors to the sitting room, dining room and short flight rising to the first floor level.

The sitting room is a charming living space with exposed timber floor and fireplace with hearth and inset log burning stove, window to front.

The dining room has a more contemporary wood effect floor, a delightful fireplace with chimney hood and herring bone style hearth, timber bressummer and a very useful understairs storage cupboard. A door leads from the dining room to the kitchen past a small breakfast area with a window overlooking the garden. Ideal for early morning coffee, this area opens up to the kitchen which features counter tops to three sides, an enamel style sink, with pine cupboards and drawers at both eye and floor level, a five-ring gas hob with electric oven below and extractor. There is space for a microwave oven, and a space for a fridge freezer and washing machine. There is a wall mounted BAXI gas boiler, replaced over the last few years, window to the rear and delightful timber ledged door to the rear garden.

The bathroom features a shower bath, a wash hand basin and a low level WC and a window to the rear.

To the first floor there are two excellent size bedrooms, the second bedroom features two very useful built in cupboards. On landing there is a skylight window and a cupboard directly over the stairs.

Outside;
The rear garden has been arranged for low maintenance with paved and stone covered areas providing potential seating areas for the shade or catching the sun. There is an outside water tap and side access, A pathway leads past a substantial timber shed which is glazed and would be ideal for hobbies etc. At the foot of the garden there is a door concealing a disused former well.

Agents note;
The property is grade II listed and is of timber framed, brick and plastered construction. Please note there is no dedicated parking but generally space can be readily found on Nunnery Street.

At the rear of the garden is a cubby-hole concealing a former well which provided water for the cottages. As a consequence, we understand there is an established right to access to the same by the occupants of the neighbouring cottages.

The well presented accommodation comprises:

Two bedrooms	Kitchen
Ground floor bathroom	Dining room
Sitting room	Secluded rear garden
