Well Cottage, Ballingers Row

Chedworth, GL54 4AQ

NO ONWARD CHAIN. A charming terraced Cotswold stone Cottage set in a peaceful elevated position and enjoying a lovely southerly outlook over the valley towards the village church.

LOCATION

Nestled in the heart of the picturesque Cotswolds, Chedworth is a quintessential Gloucestershire village renowned for its charming honey-coloured stone cottages, rolling countryside and rich heritage. Set within a beautiful valley, the village offers a peaceful rural setting while fostering a strong sense of community, with amenities including a well-regarded primary school, parish church, village hall and traditional pub. The world-famous Chedworth Roman Villa, managed by the National Trust, is located nearby, along with an abundance of scenic walking and cycling routes through the surrounding countryside. Conveniently positioned approximately 8 miles from Cirencester, 5 miles from Northleach and within easy reach of Cheltenham, Chedworth combines idyllic Cotswold living with excellent access to a range of shopping, dining, leisure and transport links.

DESCRIPTION

Well Cottage comprises a highly original terraced Cotswold stone Cottage set on Ballingers Row on the North side of the village. The property has a fabulous Southerly outlook with a terraced front garden together with a larger offset garden to the rear, all of which enjoy the Southerly aspect. The accommodation is arranged over two floors with an open plan sitting and dining room to the front of the cottage, with a bespoke fitted kitchen, rear hall and shower room to the rear. On the first floor the stairs open out into a study landing or occasional second bedroom and in turn leading to a double bedroom. Set to the rear of the house and offset is a good sized rear garden rising up to a terraced and detached home office/summerhouse with power and light. The property is offered for sale with no onward chain.
