HERE IS WHAT THE OWNERS HAD TO SAY:

We love the design of this property. Its very spacious and the living room mezzanine is a unique feature which adds to that sense of openness.

There is a good amount of outdoor space which is useable all day – the sun shines on the balcony in the morning and moves round to the front garden in the afternoon.

On a practical level there is lots of useful storage throughout the house, particularly under the stairs which is large enough to store bikes.

The location of the property is ideal, being half way between Forest Hill and Honor Oak Park meaning that not only are there all the local amenities in both hubs, but also travel into central London is quick and easy.

The residential area itself is very quiet with a lovely communal green, lots of trees and plenty of parking spaces for residents.
