SITUATION

Lannoweth Road is perfectly situated at the gateway to Penzance, just a short stroll from the train and bus stations and the town centre itself. As the commercial and cultural heart of the Land's End Peninsula, Penzance is rich in history and character, reflected in its well-preserved architecture. A standout attraction is the recently restored Art Deco Jubilee Pool, while the town buzzes with energy, offering an eclectic mix of independent shops, cafés, restaurants, galleries, and traditional inns.

Just a short walk from the property, the serene Morrab and Penlee Gardens provide a peaceful escape, complemented by a local art gallery and museum celebrating the unique heritage of West Cornwall. The surrounding area is home to spectacular sandy beaches and world-famous attractions, including the iconic Minack Theatre at Porthcurno, the Tate Gallery in St Ives, and the magical St Michael's Mount in Marazion. Nearby, the picturesque villages of Mousehole and Marazion exude timeless charm, while the lively fishing harbour of Newlyn enhances the region's coastal character. For travel further afield, Penzance railway station provides direct services to London Paddington.
