GUIDE PRICE £350,000 - £400,000

This beautifully presented and fully refurbished three bedroom family home on Flint Street is the kind of place that quietly raises the bar for everything else you'll see. Lovingly owned for 25 years and completely transformed in that time, it now delivers style, space and practicality in equal measure, with a rear extension, front extension and loft conversion that make the most of every inch.

Step inside and you're welcomed by an entrance porch before moving into a generous lounge/diner, ideal for everything from cosy nights in to hosting friends who may never want to leave. To the rear, the kitchen/diner is the true showstopper and very much the heart of the home. Beautifully designed and fully equipped with Bosch double oven, microwave, induction hob and dishwasher, plus a Neff extractor hood, it's a space that makes both everyday meals and weekend entertaining feel effortless. A handy ground floor WC and underfloor heating throughout the entire ground floor add that extra layer of comfort and convenience.

Upstairs, the first floor offers two well-sized bedrooms, a stylish family bathroom, separate shower room and a surprisingly useful utility room that keeps the day-to-day neatly tucked away. The top floor is reserved for the impressive master bedroom, complete with fitted wardrobes and a calm, retreat-like feel.

Outside, the garden provides the perfect balance of space and privacy, whether it's summer barbecues, children playing or simply a quiet morning coffee. There's also a brick-built workshop with power and lighting, ideal for hobbies, storage or a future project space.

Additional perks include a Worcester Bosch combi boiler, serviced annually, and solar panels with two batteries, helping to keep energy efficiency as sharp as the interiors.

In short, this is not just a house that's been updated, it's one that's been genuinely upgraded in all the ways that matter.
