Full Description

From the garage area, the far right communal door leads to the block hallway with the flat to an initial left.

Inside, the hallway retains an initial receptive space with both bedrooms either side. Bedroom Two, to the left, overlooks the rear of the property. Opposite, Bedroom One is double room with built-in storage along the whole of the back wall offering abundant storage as well as further space for furnishings and views over the communal gardens.

Adjacent is the lounge/diner which is excellently proportioned for a range of furnishings and enjoys a patio door as well as large window to the patio and communal gardens that blends the internal and external spaces for season versatility with a sense of space. At the end of the hall, neighbouring the lounge, is a stylish contemporary kitchen. The range of units allow for excellent variety of base level storage with extensive preparation space, too. There is an integral electric oven with microwave above and electric ceramic hob with extractor. There is a one and a half bowl stainless steel sink with mixer tap and spaces for washing machine, tumble dryer and fridge freezer.

Completing the rooms is a shower room, finished in sleek sleek pearlescent aqua boards with with large walk-in shower alongside separate toilet and basin. A double storage cupboard hosts the boiler in the centre of the home, accessible via the hallway.

Via the drive-in entrance, the garage is the second furthest and offers great additional storage. To the other side of the block, well maintained communal gardens offer a lovely space to sit out with patios divided by opaque glass barriers for privacy. The blocks enviable position between Bingleaves Road and Belle Vue Road allows for short walks to Nothe Fort and Gardens as well as access further to the vibrant harbourside and town centre.
