About the property

GUIDE PRICE £850,000 - £900,000

Situated in the ever-popular Golden Triangle, moments from Preston Park, this characterful four-bedroom period home is beautifully arranged over three floors and combines charm and elegance with family-oriented comfort.

A welcoming entrance hall leads into a superb double reception room, featuring a large bay window that floods the space with natural light, elegant wood flooring, and a striking marble fireplace that creates a wonderful focal point. To the rear, an expansive kitchen diner enjoys lovely views over the garden and offers clearly defined dining and kitchen areas, along with a practical pantry/utility space. The kitchen itself is stylish and well-appointed, complete with attractive granite worktops and an impressive stainless steel Fisher & Paykel range cooker. A conservatory extends from the kitchen, providing additional space and direct access to the generous rear garden.

The garden is west-facing, spacious and open. On summer days it is bathed in sunshine from mid-morning until sunset - an ideal spot for relaxing, enjoying family time, or entertaining friends.

The first floor hosts three bright and well-proportioned double bedrooms, all with wood flooring and two with period fireplaces. The modern family bathroom is finished to a high standard and benefits from underfloor heating. The second floor provides a further bedroom or home office, enjoying far-reaching views towards the seafront and the South Downs, with useful eaves storage enhancing practicality.

Ideally positioned, the property offers excellent transport links, with Preston Park railway station just a short walk away, providing direct services to London and beyond. There is a vibrant selection of independent shops, cafés and delis nearby, while the green open spaces of Blakers Park and Preston Park are both within a five-minute stroll. All of which make this a truly desirable place to call home.
