Manningtree

Step into the charm and comfort of this delightful period cottage, nestled in the heart of a serene conservation area, moments away from the bustling heart of Manningtree Town and the picturesque Waterfront. Perfectly suited for first-time buyers, downsizers, or savvy investors, this residence is a rare find that comes to the market free of any upward chain, inviting you to make it your own with the greatest of ease.

Upon crossing the threshold, you are greeted by a cosy sitting room, where the warmth of the stripped wooden floor and the character of the feature brick fireplace create an inviting ambience for relaxation and entertainment. The kitchen/breakfast room provides a spacious and cheerful space to enjoy culinary pursuits and leisurely morning coffees.

Upstairs, the two well-appointed bedrooms offer restful retreats, accompanied by a convenient first-floor bathroom. Practicality is ensured with gas radiator heating and double glazing throughout, ensuring year-round comfort.

Outside, the enclosed rear garden presents a private haven for outdoor enjoyment, a space where one can unwind or indulge in a spot of gardening. This house is a gem waiting to be cherished, promising a blend of period features and modern living to its new owners.
