33 Lingmell Crescent

The Property

This three bedroom semi detached home on Lingmell Crescent occupies a generous plot with ample parking, detached garage and substantial garden. Situated within walking distance of the village centre, school and train station, it combines a convenient location with well balanced accommodation.

The ground floor comprises an entrance hallway, lounge, and dining kitchen with patio doors opening to the rear garden. A utility room and downstairs W.C. add further practicality. To the first floor there are three good sized bedrooms and a family bathroom. Externally, the property benefits from driveway parking for several vehicles, gated access to further parking and a large detached garage, along with a spacious rear lawn.

In summary, this is a well-proportioned home on a sizeable plot in a sought after coastal village, making it an excellent option for families, first-time buyers and those looking to relocate.
