Achilles Road, NW6

An impressive four bedroom Victorian end of terrace residence set along Achilles Road, offering versatile family living across three well appointed floors, complete with valuable lower ground cellar space. The house will also be sold with no onward chain.

A beautifully positioned home occupying the first house on the road directly overlooking the park and enjoying open views with a wonderful sense of space. The ground floor features a generous reception room with a bay window and original cornice, leading through to a contemporary open plan kitchen/diner with direct access to a secluded approximately 30ft garden. The first floor comprises three double bedrooms with high ceilings, with the principal bedroom benefiting from a bay window along with a family bathroom and separate WC. The second floor provides an additional bedroom and office, ideal for family living or working from home.

Located in the heart of West Hampstead's desirable Greek Streets', Achilles Road is ideally positioned moments from the shops, cafés, bars and restaurants of West End Lane. With a welcoming village atmosphere, strong community feel and excellent transport links via nearby Jubilee, Overground and Thameslink stations, the location offers both convenience and connectivity.
