Lower Street, Pulborough RH20 2AG

With 700sq ft of living space, this really well proportioned first floor flat overlooks Lower Street to the front and has a view towards the South Downs to the rear. All local amenities are within walking distance, including a range of shops, bars, cafes, takeaways and restaurants. Pulborough's mainline railway station is a little over half a mile away and has direct routes to London and Gatwick. There are two supermarkets in the village, plus the River Arun for kayaking and paddle boarding, plenty of green spaces and wonderful walks almost from the front door.

The mature building has a communal entrance hallway to the front and a large parking area to the rear. A garage provides useful additional storage. The living / dining room has a Juliet balcony and plenty of space to relax or to socialise with family and friends. The kitchen has a glimpsed view to the side and the shower room was replaced in 2024 by the current owner. They added a new combi boiler in 2025, making this a really economical home to run. Both bedrooms have built in cupboards and are doubles, the second being currently used as a home office.
