What Contract Ready Means for You — the Buyer

When a seller is Contract Ready, it means all the key legal documents are prepared before a sale is agreed, so everything's ready to go as soon as the offer is accepted, with no cost to you.

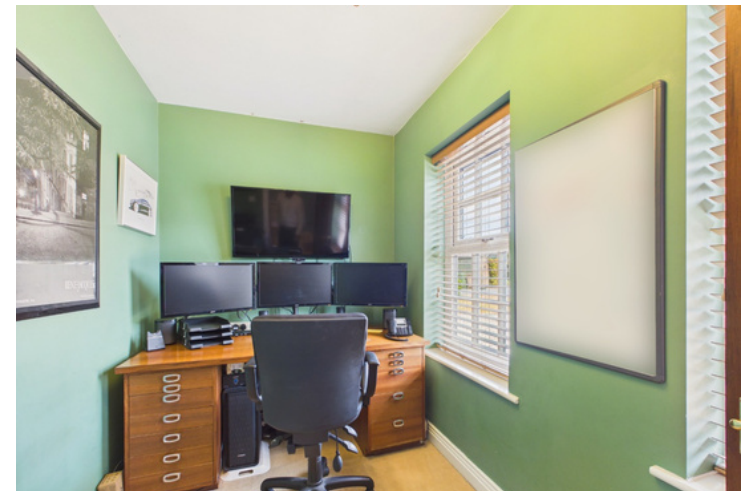

This includes:

- Proof of ownership and authority to sell
- Seller's Property Information Forms (TA6, TA10)
- Draft contract of sale

Your solicitor usually receives the full legal pack within 48 hours, so they can get to work immediately.

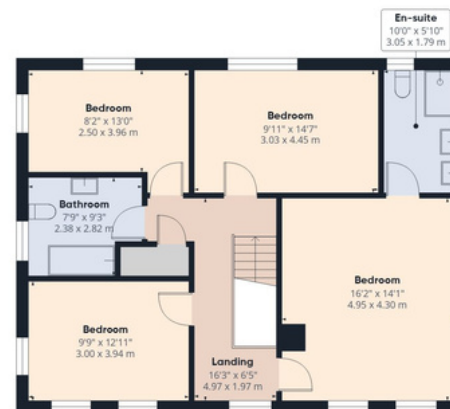

How this helps you:

- Reduces the number of enquiries going back and forth
- Smoother and potentially quicker sale
- Lowers the risk of the sale falling through
