Located within the rural village of Ash, this substantial and versatile three/four bedroom family home occupies an impressive plot with beautifully established gardens, ample off road parking and exciting potential to extend further, subject to the necessary planning permissions. Having been thoughtfully extended, the property now offers over 1,330 sq. ft. (124.3 sq. m.) of well balanced accommodation, perfectly suited to modern family living.

The ground floor comprises a welcoming entrance hall leading to a generous bay fronted living room, an additional reception room providing flexible family space, and a separate dining area with French doors opening directly onto the rear garden. The fitted kitchen enjoys pleasant views over the garden and is complemented by a practical utility room with external access and the potential to add a downstairs cloakroom/shower room. A further ground floor bedroom/study offers an ideal home office, guest room or playroom.

To the first floor are three well proportioned bedrooms, including a particularly spacious principal bedroom with fitted wardrobes, all served by a large family bathroom.

A true highlight of the property is the exceptional rear garden. Lovingly maintained, it features extensive lawns, mature trees and shrubs, established planting beds and productive vegetable plots, creating a wonderful private retreat with plenty of space for entertaining, gardening or family life. The generous plot size also provides scope for further extension, subject to the usual planning consents.

To the front, a private driveway provides ample off road parking, while the attractive frontage and mature landscaping enhance the property's kerb appeal.

Located in the charming village of Ash, the property enjoys a peaceful countryside setting whilst remaining conveniently placed for local amenities, highly regarded schools and excellent transport links from Longfield station.
