- ♥ Three Bedroom Semi Detached House
- ♥ Extended Ground Floor
- ♥ Living Room & Snug
- ♥ Kitchen/Dining Room

About this property

Offered with no onward chain, this solidly-built and extended three bedroom semi-detached property is situated in a quiet and well-established residential area, conveniently located within half a mile of the main town centre, as well as the newly re-built King Henry secondary school and choice of primary schools. The property affords nicely proportioned accommodation throughout with plenty of space to create an excellent family home. The ground floor accommodation comprises an entrance hall, which leads to the main living room with recently installed log burner, a separate snug with patio doors to the rear garden, a kitchen which opens into the adjoining dining room, also with patio doors to the rear garden. In addition there is a handy utility room/bar to the rear. On the first floor there are two double bedrooms, a further single bedroom and family bathroom, including a jacuzzi bath with shower over. The property is pleasingly located overlooking a central green and benefits from a hedge enclosed front garden with driveway parking for two vehicles. To the rear there is a patio area to the immediate rear of the house, with steps down to the rest of the garden being a mixture of paving, lawn, decking and flower beds. With the benefits of gas-fired central heating and double glazing throughout, this comfortable home should be viewed without delay.

About the location

A popular market town nestled amidst the Seven Beacons with its skyline dominated by the Bloreng and the Sugar Loaf mountains, Abergavenny is known as the 'Gateway to Wales'. It is situated twelve miles from the English border and just south of the Black Mountains in the Brecon Beacons National Park. Steeped in history, Abergavenny was originally a Roman Fort then a medieval walled town. It is now a market town with arguably more life than nearby Usk and Monmouth. It offers a wide range of amenities with major supermarkets, popular bi-weekly market, a high street comprising of recognised chains and local department stores, leisure centre, a number of churches and Nevill Hall Hospital. Abergavenny is world renowned for its Food Festival which brings the UK's best chefs and culinary experts to the town every September. The town also offers a rich and vibrant range of cultural options including the Borough Theatre which offers an all year round programme of professional and amateur events, and the annual Abergavenny Writing Festival. Its location means that Abergavenny acts as the major transport hub for the area. The railway station allows easy access to anywhere on the rail network. The A465, Heads of the Valleys Road is one mile out of town with the M50 / M4 a further 25 minutes away.

Directions

From the Angel Hotel on Cross Street, in the centre of the town, follow Monk Street (A40) north to the traffic lights and turn left into Park Road. Follow the road and take the second right into Pen Y Pound. Continue over the traffic and then take the first right turn into Ysguborwen., following straight on into Highfield Crescent where the property can be found on the left hand side with the green opposite.
