- Leasehold Interest

Situation

Positioned on the edge of the charming village of Ystradfellte and nestled within the breathtaking Brecon Beacons National Park, this property enjoys an enviable location with excellent access to key road links, including the A465 and A470.

The surrounding landscape is a haven for walkers, riders, and nature lovers, with miles of scenic trails, bridleways and woodland routes. The nearby world-famous “Six Waterfalls” walk draws visitors all year round, making this a prime opportunity for tourism-related ventures such as holiday pods, glamping or eco-stays.

Description

Covering approximately 10.75 acres, the land is divided into a series of well-proportioned parcels, each benefitting from its own water supply. It is ideally suited to equestrian use, a smallholding, or a leisure-based enterprise.

The property also features a recently constructed 75ft x 30ft steel portal-framed agricultural building, offering substantial storage or operational space.

A particularly attractive feature is the 1.75-acre section with full planning permission (Planning Ref: 22/21362/FUL) for the development of four high-quality tourism pods—a fantastic opportunity to generate income in an area renowned for its natural beauty and strong visitor numbers.

Access

Access to the land is directly off a public maintained road.

Plan

The plans attached to these particulars are shown for identification purposes only and, whilst every care has been taken, its contents cannot be guaranteed.

Services

The land has a mains water connection.

Basic Payment Scheme

The land is being sold without the benefit of Basic Payment Scheme Entitlements.

Tenure and Possession

Leasehold with Vacant Possession upon completion. Further details on the leasehold title are available from the Selling Agents.

Boundaries

The purchaser(s) shall be deemed to have full knowledge of all boundaries and neither the vendor nor the vendors agents will be responsible for defining the boundaries of the ownership thereof.

Wayleave/Easements/Rights of Way

The property is being sold subject to and with the benefit of all rights including: rights of way, whether public or private, light, support, drainage, water and electricity supplies and other rights and obligations, easements and quasi-easements and restrictive covenants and all existing and proposed wayleaves for masts, pylons, stays, cables, drains, water and gas and other pipes whether referred to in these particulars or not. The property is subject to a right of way on foot in favour of the adjoining landowner. This is indicated by the purple line on the attached site plan.

Disputes

Should any dispute arise as to the boundaries or any point arising in the General Remarks and Stipulations or Particulars of Scale, Schedule, Plan or interpretation of any of them, the question shall be referred to the arbitration of the selling agents, whose decision acting as expert shall be final.

Plans, Areas & Schedules

These have been prepared as carefully as possible and are based on the Land Registry Plans. The plans are published for illustrative purposes only and although they are believed to be correct, their accuracy is not guaranteed.

Health and Safety

Given the potential hazards of agricultural land we ask you to be as vigilant as possible when making your inspection for your own personal safety.
