The highly fashionable and vibrant Shore district of Edinburgh is located approximately three miles north of the city centre. Over recent years the area has attracted a new generation of trendy bars and restaurants, which sit side by side with traditional pubs, while the neighbouring district also boasts no fewer than three Michelin-starred restaurants. Sport and fitness enthusiasts have a choice of several gyms and fitness studios including Leith Victoria Swim Centre (traditional Victorian swimming baths with a well-equipped gym and fitness studios) and a 24-hour PURE gym at Ocean Terminal across the street, which also includes a multi-screen cinema and due newly opened Bingo 3000 and Gutterball. A 24 hour Asda supermarket is a little further east within neighbouring Newhaven whilst an Aldi supermarket has recently opened on Commercial Street itself with additional shops including a Tesco express conveniently located across the street. An efficient public transport network is on hand, with 24-hour buses and a tramline connecting Leith to the city and to Edinburgh International Airport.
