Location

The bungalow is located within the Parish of Reydon which benefits from a doctors surgery, general stores, bowls club and hotel. The property is just 1.5 miles from the desirable coastal town of Southwold, with its sandy beach, pier and High Street which has boutique and national shops as well as pubs and restaurants.

Description

The property is a detached bungalow understood to date from the early 1980s of predominantly brick construction under a tiled roof. In recent years it has been substantially improved and extended to create flexible living accommodation. It is understood to have been re-plumbed and re-wired, all windows were replaced, and of particular note is the open-plan kitchen/sitting/dining room and also the mahogany conservatory.

A front door leads to the hallway which has south, west and east facing windows and engineered oak flooring. Doors lead off to the kitchen/sitting/dining room, the bedrooms and shower room. In addition is an airing cupboard with slatted shelving and a radiator. The engineered oak flooring, which is in a herringbone style, continues through to the kitchen/sitting/dining room. This fantastic open-plan room is triple aspect with windows to the south, west and north. In one corner is the kitchen which has high and low-level wall units, a double electric oven, four ring gas hob, extractor fan and water softener. There are woodblock worksurfaces. In addition is a large island with integrated slimline dishwasher and built-in washing machine. This too has a worksurface and one and a half bowl stainless steel sink. There is ample space within the room for both a dining table and sofas. Bifold doors open to the conservatory. This is understood to be of painted mahogany construction and has wall to wall north and west facing windows as well as bifold doors opening to the rear garden. At one end is a utility area with sink, combi boiler and low-level wall units. From the hallway, a door leads to the principal bedroom suite. Here there is a dressing room which some may choose to use as a single bedroom if required. The room continues to the main bedroom which has south facing windows to the front and north facing French doors opening to the rear garden. A door opens to an en-suite shower room that comprises a WC, handwash basin and shower. It is fully tiled and has a skylight and towel radiator. The second bedroom can be accessed from the front hall and also via the main bedroom. This room has a south facing window to the front of the property, and built-in wardrobes with hanging rail and shelving.

Outside

The property is approached from the road via a brick paved driveway where there is also shingle providing a substantial amount of parking. The front garden is enclosed by raised beds, and a sandstone path and a gate provides access to the fully fenced rear garden. Here there is a large sandstone patio and decked area along with a pergola with wisteria. As well as raised beds, there is a fruit garden and a large garden shed with power connected. This measures approximately 12' x 10'. There is also a summerhouse that measures 8'10 by 7'7.
