

oakheart

£300,000

Asking Price

Fairhaven Avenue, West Mersea

This charming two-bedroom detached bungalow on Fairhaven Avenue offers a wonderful blend of comfort, convenience, and coastal living. Set back from the road with off-road parking, the property enjoys a peaceful position within a short stroll of the beach, making it ideal for those seeking a relaxed lifestyle close to the sea.

Upon entering, you are welcomed into a bright and inviting entrance hall which leads into the lounge diner, a spacious dual-purpose room perfect for both cosy evenings and entertaining. Natural light fills the space, creating a warm atmosphere that enhances the home's easy flow. The adjoining kitchen is well laid out, offering ample storage and work surfaces, with direct access that makes daily living practical and straightforward.

Both bedrooms are well proportioned, providing comfortable accommodation for residents or guests. The bathroom is neatly presented and serves the home effectively, offering a calm space to unwind.

Outside, the property features a delightful garden that catches the sun throughout the day, offering room for outdoor dining, planting, or simply enjoying the fresh coastal air. This is a wonderful opportunity for anyone looking to embrace a quieter pace of life while remaining close to local amenities and the shoreline.

