INTRODUCTION

This fine semi-detached home sits in a commanding position on Swanland Hill, boasting an unrivaled outlook across open fields to the Humber Bridge and the Lincolnshire Wolds beyond.

While the ground floor retains a classic, comfortable feel across its four versatile reception areas—including a lounge, dining room, breakfast kitchen, and a superb leisure room—the first floor has been transformed into a contemporary sanctuary. Here, the extensive sleeping quarters comprise four bedrooms complemented by three high-specification, stylish bathrooms, offering a genuine touch of modern luxury.

The exterior is equally impressive, featuring a long block set driveway for excellent parking and a split-level rear garden. With an artificial lawn for ease of maintenance and a substantial outbuilding ideal for a home office, this is an exceptional property designed to make the most of its prestigious, elevated setting. There is also an electric car charging point installed.

LOCATION

Situated off Swanland Hill, the property can be accessed by turning into Swanland Garth. Swanland Hill leads out of North Ferriby towards Swanland and provides some spectacular views across fields, the Humber Bridge and beyond. North Ferriby is one of the most distinguished villages in the East Riding, nestled on the northern bank of the Humber Estuary. It offers an exceptional quality of life, celebrated for its community spirit, surrounding landscapes, and stunning riverside views. Together with the nearby villages of Swanland and Melton, the area provides a highly desirable residential environment that perfectly balances a peaceful village lifestyle with immediate access to modern conveniences.

The local infrastructure is excellent, catering to both daily needs and leisure. The village heart features an impressive church and there are a variety of independent shops, a convenience store, and charming local cafés, alongside the popular Duke of Cumberland pub. Residents benefit from being just minutes away from more extensive amenities in nearby Hessle and Willerby, while the scenic riverside walkways and the village hall and local village social club offer fantastic opportunities for recreation and community engagement.

The village is home to the well-regarded North Ferriby Primary School, known for its strong community links. For secondary education, the village falls within the catchment for the well-regarded South Hunsley School and Sixth Form College, with prestigious independent options, including Hymers College, Tranby, and Pocklington School, also within easy reach.

North Ferriby provides superb regional connectivity, particularly for those who commute by rail or road. The village features its own railway station with regular services to Hull, Leeds, York, and Sheffield. For motorists, the A63 is immediately accessible, providing a direct link to Hull or the M62 corridor and the national motorway network, ensuring effortless travel across the region.

Accessibility to key destinations includes:

- Hull City Centre: Approx. 8 miles
- Beverley (Historic Market Town): Approx. 11 miles
- York: Approx. 33 miles
- Leeds: Approx. 53 miles

Beyond the immediate vicinity, the location offers unparalleled access to the beauty of the East Riding countryside. The nearby Yorkshire Wolds present a stunning landscape of peaceful walking trails and traditional villages. This area is perfect for outdoor enthusiasts, offering easy exploration of the coast, including the dramatic clifftops and sandy beaches. The thriving market town of Beverley is nearby with the attraction of York still convenient yet a little more distant.
