Ty Santony

Harlech | Merionethshire | LL46 2UW

Ty Santony is an exceptional and unique property with spacious and flexible accommodation, annexe potential and an interesting history as a former police house.

Now converted to a spacious residence, the flexible accommodation includes 4 bedrooms, a home office/gym (in the original jail cell), 3 reception rooms plus a conservatory. There is a first floor family bathroom, ground double bedroom and ground floor shower room and additional WC.

The layout of the ground floor accommodation is perfect for those with limited mobility. It even has a private entrance and its own dedicated garden with an artist's studio.

If that wasn't enough there is also a large utility and to the rear there is a detached garage and off road parking.

The main house benefits from a welcoming lounge, open plan to the dining room and conservatory beyond. The view from here is lush with greenery and the garden is a haven for birds. Adjacent is the refitted kitchen. To the first floor there are three bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Full of quirkiness and charm, the current owners have retained the original jail cell which is now a home gym/office and the bars on some of the ground floor windows are a reminder of this lovely property's past and place in the local community. Perfectly located on the flat in Lower Harlech it is within walking distance not only of the lovely sandy beach but local facilities including two pubs, convenience store, hairdressers, medical centre, cafe and swimming pool. The railway station is just a few minutes walk away.

This property has been lovingly maintained and developed by the current owners, it is fully double glazed with oil fired central heating and will make new owners a dream coastal property bursting with potential and flexibility.

Harlech and its surrounds

Harlech is in the heart of the Snowdonia National Park famous for its World Heritage listed castle. It has astonishing views across Tremadog Bay to the Llyn Peninsula and one of the most picturesque golden sandy beaches in Wales. It has recently been given the accolade of having the second steepest street in the world at Ffordd Pen Llech just a few minutes walk from the property.

Harlech has a wealth of traditional architecture, shops and restaurants. It also boasts the internationally renowned Royal St David's links golf course. Further afield are the larger towns of Barmouth (8 miles) and Porthmadog (12 miles) which offer more shops and large supermarkets. At least two of the large national supermarkets have a delivery service to Harlech.

The Rhinog mountain range provides the spectacular backdrop to the town which is one of the most rugged and remote terrains to be found in Wales. The mountains and hills provide hiking and walking opportunities for all ranges of abilities.

On your doorstep is a bus stop taking you to areas along the coast and inland and also the Cambrian railway with direct journey to Birmingham and along the coast to Pwllheli.
