The front door opens into a glazed porch and through to the first reception room, which features exposed beams, a staircase with storage beneath, and a striking inglenook fireplace with inset stove. This room links to both the kitchen/breakfast room and the triple-aspect sitting room, where a Blue Lias inglenook with bread oven and wood-burning stove provides a stunning focal point. Bi-fold doors at the rear open directly onto the garden.

The kitchen/breakfast room is fitted with matching wall and base units, offering plenty of storage, plus space for a dining table. Adjoining is a utility room with extra units, sink, and space for appliances, together with a downstairs WC.

Upstairs, the landing leads to four bedrooms, three with built-in storage, alongside a family bathroom. The master enjoys an en-suite shower room and pleasant countryside views can be seen from several rooms.

The historic town of Glastonbury, famous for its Tor and Abbey Ruins is 6 miles and the Cathedral City of Wells 8.5 miles. Millfield School is on the outskirts of Street and the town offers a wide range of amenities including both indoor and outdoor swimming pools, Strode Theatre, Strode College and a complex of shopping outlets in Clarks Village. Castle Cary main line station (London Paddington) is 7 miles as is the A303 at Podimore.

Outside, a gated driveway from Mill Road provides parking for multiple vehicles and leads to a single garage with power and light. The south-facing front garden is mainly lawn with pathways and mature boundaries, enjoying sunshine throughout the day. To the rear is a private, low-maintenance garden with patio, stone chippings, and well-stocked borders—ideal for outdoor dining.
