Nestled in the heart of the sought after Rutland village of Wing, this beautifully presented three bedroom home effortlessly blends period character with modern comforts, offering an inviting sanctuary for discerning buyers.

The main reception room is a true focal point, exuding warmth and charm with its brand new wood burning stove, produced and fitted by a local firm and character features including exposed beams that create a welcoming atmosphere for both relaxation and entertaining.

A thoughtfully converted basement provides a versatile second reception room or snug, ideal for cosy evenings, a playroom, or a peaceful retreat for reading and unwinding. The hand built kitchen is a testament to craftsmanship, combining bespoke cabinetry with practical layout, making it a delightful space for cooking and gathering with loved ones.

Recent enhancements, including new windows and a re-roofed frontage, ensure the property is as efficient as it is elegant.

The master bedroom benefits from a stylish en-suite shower room, offering a private haven for the homeowners, while two further bedrooms provide ample space for family or guests, both sharing the family bathroom with free standing bath.

The convenience of off road parking and a single garage adds a rare practicality to village living, allowing for easy arrivals and departures. As a Grade II listed residence, the home retains a wealth of original features and architectural detail, bestowing a sense of heritage and timeless appeal. This is a home that not only promises comfort and style, but also the unique pleasure of village life, where tranquil surroundings and a strong sense of community can be enjoyed every day.

Whether you are seeking a peaceful retreat, a family base, or a characterful space to entertain, this exceptional property offers a lifestyle that is both refined and relaxed, ready to be cherished by its next fortunate owner.
