Substantially extended, and beautifully presented semi detached family home with large rear garden extending to approximately 280’.

Entrance hallway, with herringbone style flooring, sitting room, study/snug, and fabulous open plan seating/dining and kitchen/family area with bi-fold doors overlooking garden and ‘secret’ concealed utility room and a downstairs cloakroom.

At the first floor are four double bedrooms (master en suite), and a family bathroom. With off street parking to the front, and a substantial mature rear garden.

the location

Set in one of Hanham’s most sought after locations, and one of a handful with a larger than average garden. The local schools are within walking distance. There are local shops at the end of the road and more comprehensive facilities of Hanham high street are also within walking distance. There are a choice of wooded, green and river walks and the Bristol to Bath cycle path all within easy striking distance. Bristol 3.3 miles Bath 9.2 miles
