The Setting

Nestled in the heart of the historic market town of Saffron Walden, Alpha Place is a charming, secluded enclave that perfectly balances the tranquility of a private cul-de-sac with the convenience of central living. This intimate residential pocket is characterized by its sympathetic architecture, often featuring modern comforts that blend seamlessly into the town's medieval and Georgian aesthetic. Residents enjoy immediate access to the vibrant High Street and the award-winning Market Square, while the lush, manicured expanses of Bridge End Garden and the historic ruins of Walden Castle are just a short stroll away. Known for its quiet, neighborly atmosphere, Alpha Place offers a premium slice of Essex life, where the convenience of boutique shops, independent cafes, and highly-regarded schools is matched only by the picturesque beauty of the surrounding timber-framed streetscapes.

The Accommodation

The ground floor accommodation is characterised by its open-plan feel and traditional charm, commencing with a front-facing lounge that features a striking period fireplace with a decorative surround and built-in cabinetry within the alcoves. This inviting reception space flows seamlessly into a central dining area, which boasts exposed timber flooring and provides access down to a practical basement level. The kitchen is situated to the rear of the property, offering a range of modern cabinetry with ample worktop space, space for appliances including an AGA, all set against a stylish tiled splashback.

The basement provides a versatile secondary space, currently utilized for storage and utility purposes.

The upper floors continue the theme of bright, well-proportioned living spaces, with the first floor comprising of a comfortable bedroom and a central family bathroom, fitted with a classic three-piece suite.

Ascending to the second floor, the accommodation is completed by a versatile loft room, currently utilised a second bedroom, which benefits from ample eaves storage.
