Whipples Farm Ongar Road

Stondon Massey, Brentwood

Guide Price: £1,325,000 - £1,400,000

A beautifully extended period farmhouse, seamlessly blending original character with striking contemporary living, extending to approximately 3,200 sq ft and set within the sought-after village of Stondon Massey.

Steeped in history, the land was originally bestowed upon Sir Walter Mildmay by Queen Elizabeth I, later passing to Emmanuel College, Cambridge, before evolving through private ownership over the centuries. Rebuilt in 1860, the original farmhouse forms the front portion of the home, with a substantial and thoughtfully designed rear extension creating a superb balance of period charm and modern family living.

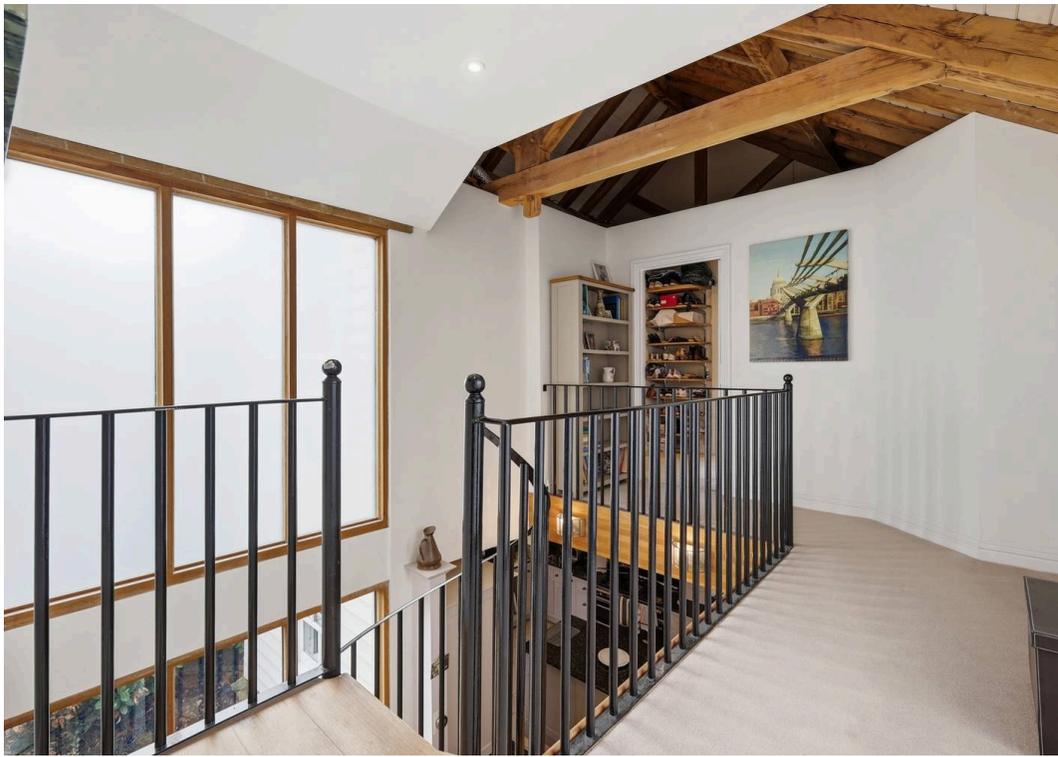

The front of the property retains its traditional character, offering a series of well-proportioned reception areas including a formal living room, lounge and dining room, ideal for more traditional or flexible family use.

To the rear, the home opens into an impressive open-plan kitchen, dining and living space, designed very much for modern living. Featuring a bespoke fitted kitchen with central island, this space is flooded with natural light and enhanced by a striking galleried landing and feature staircase, with doors opening directly onto the garden, creating a seamless connection between inside and out.

The accommodation is both generous and versatile, perfectly suited to family life, with five well-proportioned bedrooms arranged across the first floor.
