£310,000

West Paradise Cottage is a superb Three Bedroom Semi-Detached House, believed to date back to the 18th Century, occupying a rarely available position within the historic Lincolnshire market town of Caistor. This Grade II Listed house is full of character and individuality, with a wealth of period features retained throughout and an attractive outlook overlooking the church.

Deceptively spacious, the accommodation is arranged over three floors and combines traditional character with practical living space. Exposed wooden beams, feature fireplaces, secondary glazing, wooden flooring and original style detailing feature throughout, creating a home with a genuine sense of history and charm.

The property offers a particularly interesting layout, with the kitchen and dining room on the ground floor, living room, bedroom and bathroom on the first floor, and two further bedrooms together with an additional bathroom on the second floor.
