

The Manor, Chedburgh, Suffolk.

DAVID BURR

Chedburgh is a popular village with a community centre offering various clubs and activities; The 'Little Teacups' Pre-school which has been graded Ofsted outstanding for some years and a church. The village is also close to the National Trust at Ickworth with its stunning scenery and walks. It is conveniently located approximately 5 miles south of the historic market town of Bury St Edmunds offering a wealth of amenities including shops, supermarkets, restaurants and bars, theatres, schools, railway station and medical services. The A14 provides fast access to Cambridge and Ipswich and commuter train services are available to the above as well as Newmarket, Ely and Peterborough.

This exceptionally well-presented detached house offers elegant accommodation of considerable character (high ceilings, ornate fireplaces, ceiling roses etc.) in a wonderful setting with field views. The property is well-placed for countryside walks whilst only being a short drive from the Cathedral town of Bury St Edmunds. Further benefits include a triple garage block, annexe/studio and generous landscaped gardens.

An elegant detached house of approximately 3,000 square feet plus annexe accommodation and far-reaching field views.
