Situated on Whitfield Street in the delightful town of Newark, this charming two-bedroom end terrace house presents a great opportunity for investors or first-time buyers. A character-filled home where comfort and convenience come together naturally.

The ground floor offers a well-presented and comfortable living room, a separate dining room, a fitted kitchen with ample storage units, and a rear lobby featuring built-in storage cupboards which houses the Baxi combi boiler and a bathroom to the rear of the property. To the first floor, there are two spacious double bedrooms which is great for a couple or family.

Along the side of the property is a shared passage providing access to the rear garden. The garden is fully enclosed by high walls, offering a private and generous outdoor space. It is arranged over two levels, one featuring wooden bench seating and the other housing a garden shed. Viewing is highly recommended.

Newark is superbly placed for commuters, with excellent road links to the A1 and A46, providing swift access to Nottingham, Lincoln and major regional centres. Newark Northgate offers fast rail services to London King's Cross in approximately 75 minutes. The town itself is a vibrant market centre, home to a wide selection of amenities including an M&S Food Hall, Asda, Morrisons, Waitrose and Aldi. The attractive Georgian Market Square hosts regular markets and is surrounded by an appealing mix of independent boutiques and national retailers, including a recently opened Waterstones bookstore, complementing an already good selection of independent and charity book shops around the town centre. Newark also offers a great choice of cafes, bars and restaurants, including established brands such as Starbucks and Costa. The area benefits from well-regarded primary and secondary schooling and the services of Newark Hospital.

The end-terrace property is constructed of rendered brick beneath a slate roof. The windows are predominantly uPVC double-glazed and the central heating is served by a Baxi combination boiler
