The kitchen and utility

The heart of the home combines a sleek kitchen with ample space for everyday life, perfect for hosting and family cooking. A substantial island with breakfast bar anchors the room, surrounded by integrated double ovens, coffee machine and open shelving against a striking marble-effect splashback. Plinth lighting and porcelain flooring continue into the dining area and out to the garden room. A utility houses space for additional appliances, a sink and ample cabinetry and worktop space.

The garden room

Designed for relaxed living and entertaining, the garden room opens to the garden through full-width bi-fold doors. A wall mounted media centre with contemporary electric fire provides a natural focal point, while large picture windows frame views of the lawn and towering pines. Porcelain tiles run underfoot and inset ceiling speakers and lighting create a calm atmosphere. An open archway links effortlessly back to the kitchen and dining spaces.

The living room

This inviting room is ideal for more formal gatherings or quiet evenings by the fire. A carved stone surround with gas fire and recessed alcove forms an impressive centrepiece, flanked by arched niches. A generous window with shutters draws in daylight at the front, complemented by engineered timber flooring and column radiators. Glazed bi-fold doors at the far end slide onto the terrace, extending the space outdoors.

The dining room

A dedicated dining room ensures celebrations can be enjoyed in style. The broad, curved bay window overlooks the garden and allows ample room for dining furniture. Large format floor tiles continue the contemporary theme, while double doors open into the living room. This room connects directly with the adjacent kitchen for ease of service.

The hallway and cloakroom

The entrance hall sets a refined tone, with oak flooring flowing past an exposed brick feature wall and a contemporary staircase with glass balustrade. A stylish pendant light hangs above the seating nook. Off the hall, the cloakroom continues the design narrative with half tiled walls and a mosaic border. A sleek vanity unit with a wide basin, arched feature window and radiator completes this useful space.

The principal bedroom suite

Occupying its own wing, the principal suite provides a peaceful sanctuary. Under vaulted ceilings punctuated by Velux windows, the generous sleeping area has space for a seating corner and dressing table. A media wall with inset television space and contemporary fire adds a touch of luxury, while oak flooring maintains the refined finish. A doorway leads through to a bespoke dressing room and the en suite beyond.

The principal en suite

Spa-like indulgence defines the principal en suite, where a freestanding bath sits against an exposed brick wall on patterned tiles. A large walk-in shower with rain head and green glazed tiles sits behind a glass screen. The WC sits next to a double vanity unit with twin basins, providing ample storage. The adjoining dressing room offers bespoke open wardrobes and drawers to keep clothing organised.

The second bedroom

This generous double bedroom is perfect for guests or family members. There is ample room for additional furniture and a broad window with shutters ensures the room feels bright and airy. The room also benefits from the convenience of an en suite shower room.

The second bedroom en suite

Serving the second bedroom, this contemporary shower room features a large walk-in enclosure with decorative mosaic accent tiles and a rainfall head. A wide vanity with countertop basin and WC complete the suite. Wall and floor tiles in neutral tones are complemented by a column towel radiator, creating a polished finish.

The third and fourth bedrooms

Two further bedrooms provide flexible accommodation for family, guests or working from home. The third bedroom enjoys dark wood flooring, built-in storage and wide window with shutters. The fourth bedroom benefits from twin windows overlooking the garden and space for a study area.

The fifth bedroom/study

Located on the ground floor, this versatile suite could be used as a guest room, home office or multi-generational living. Dual aspect windows and French doors open directly onto the garden, making it a light filled and private space. The generous floor area offers opportunity for many different furniture arrangements.

The family bathroom

The family bathroom is finished to the same high standard as the principal suite. A freestanding bath sits below a window framed by exposed brickwork, while a walk-in shower with green glazed tiles and rainfall head stands opposite. Patterned floor tiles, a vanity with vessel basin, WC and black fittings complete this characterful room.

The garden

The rear garden has been thoughtfully landscaped for outdoor living. An expansive paved terrace combines patterned and plain tiles and includes a covered pergola with fitted bar, perfect for alfresco dining. Beyond, a generous lawn sweeps around the house, dotted with majestic pine trees and edged by mature hedging and fencing for privacy. The garden room offers a focal point at the far end and pathways encircle the property for easy access.

The driveway and parking

To the front, a sweeping gravel drive provides parking for several vehicles and leads to a double garage with remote controlled door. An oak framed porch shelters the front door and the frontage is bordered by level lawns and clipped hedging, with mature trees behind creating an attractive backdrop.
