About The Property

Looking for a well-proportioned three bedroom semi-detached house in a popular village near Cardigan, with enclosed gardens and scope to update over time. This ex local authority home in Llechryd offers a practical layout, useful storage, and easy access to Cardigan Bay and the wider West Wales area.

This ex local authority semi-detached house sits in the well-established village of Llechryd, just a short distance from Cardigan town, and offers a practical layout with plenty of scope for updating over time if desired. It's the sort of house that has clearly been cared for, but also leaves room to make changes at a comfortable pace rather than all at once.

To the front, a gated entrance from the pavement opens into a fully enclosed garden, with lawned areas either side of a path leading to the front door. Fenced and walled boundaries provide a good sense of separation from the road, and a pathway continues down the left-hand side of the house, giving access to the rear garden and the side hallway.

The front door opens into a useful porch, which in turn leads into the main hallway. From here there is under-stairs storage, stairs rising to the first floor, and doors into both the living space and the kitchen. The lounge/diner is a well-proportioned room with a clear division between living and dining areas. To the front of the house, the lounge area features a fireplace with an electric fire and a window overlooking the front garden. To the rear, there is space for a dining table, with a window looking out across the garden, and a door that connects through to the kitchen.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of base units and a wall-mounted cupboard, along with a stainless-steel sink and drainer. There is space for a freestanding electric cooker, plumbing for a washing machine, and room for an under-counter fridge.

Details Continued:

A door leads from the kitchen into the side hall, which is a particularly useful feature of the house. From here there is access to a walk-in pantry with shelving and space for a freezer, an external door opening out to the side of the property (linking both front and rear gardens), and a further door into the ground floor WC.

Upstairs, the landing gives access to three bedrooms and the family bathroom. Two of the bedrooms are good sized doubles, one of which includes a built-in wardrobe and an airing cupboard housing the hot water tank and cold water header tanks. The third bedroom is a generous single, suitable as a bedroom, home office or hobby room. The bathroom is fitted with an accessible walk-in shower, wash hand basin and WC, with a sliding door off the landing.

Externally:

To the rear, the garden is enclosed and could easily be gated from the side access if additional privacy or security was required. There are patio areas for seating and outdoor dining, along with lawn and gravel sections planted with shrubs. The oil tank and external oil-fired boiler are also located within the garden. (Please note, the garden shed will not be included in the sale).

Overall, this is a straightforward, well-laid-out home that would suit a wide range of buyers, from first-time purchasers to those looking for a manageable house with outdoor space and the option to update over time. Viewing is recommended to appreciate the layout and setting.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE AREA:

Llechryd is a popular village on the outskirts of Cardigan, well placed for access into the town and surrounding countryside, while also being within easy reach of the coastline and the wider Cardigan Bay area.
