£395,000

The Property Quarter are delighted to offer this charming Three Bedroom Centre Terrace House located in an idealic village setting on the edge of the beautiful village of Lilley.

The truly spacious interior accommodation boasts a large lounge / kitchen area, a further generous reception and a light and substantial rear conservatory which overlooks the long , lawn rear garden with views of the adjacent fields and countryside beyond.

The property could benefit from some updating but has the potential and scope to become an even larger and well appointed family home and an early viewing is strongly recommended.
